Pilar, Kristine Alexia Matias, RN, Victor "Vic" D. Bernardo, Erwin Rey "Cocoy" A. Medina, and Jose Maria "Mari" M. Rodriguez

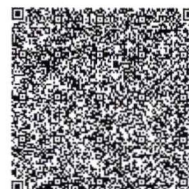

WHEREAS, climate change is contributing to rising temperatures and more frequent extreme heat events in many urban areas including Metro Manila;

WHEREAS, extreme heat poses health risks such as heat exhaustion, heat stroke, dehydration, and other heat-related illnesses, particularly among children, the elderly, and vulnerable populations;

WHEREAS, schools are among the most affected environments during periods of extreme heat, as students and teachers may experience discomfort and health risks in classrooms and outdoor school areas;

WHEREAS, implementing simple heat-resilience measures such as shade structures, hydration stations, tree planting, improved ventilation, and heat awareness campaigns may help protect students and school personnel;

WHEREAS, encouraging a citywide heat action approach beginning with schools may help strengthen public awareness, preparedness, and climate resilience within communities;

WHEREAS, Quezon City has adopted the Enhanced Local Climate Change Action Plan (ELCCAP) 2021-2050, which identifies climate resilience, urban cooling, expansion of green spaces, and protection of vulnerable sectors as key priorities in addressing the impacts of climate change and extreme heat.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF QUEZON CITY IN REGULAR SESSION ASSEMBLED, to encourage, as it does hereby encourage, the development of a city heat action approach with focus on schools in Quezon City to protect students, teachers, and communities from extreme heat and climate-related risks.

RESOLVED FURTHER, that such initiatives may include awareness programs on heat safety, promotion of shaded areas and tree planting, access to drinking water, and other measures that help protect students and school personnel from extreme heat.

RESOLVED FINALLY, that copies of this Resolution be furnished to the Quezon City Health Department, the Climate Change and Environmental Sustainability Department (CCESD), the Schools Division Office of Quezon City, and other concerned offices for their information and appropriate action.

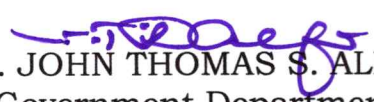

ADOPTED: August 24, 2026.
